

Guidelines for IPRI Journal Contributors

Scope of the Journal: The IPRI Journal builds interdisciplinary understanding of today's global complexities, interconnectedness and events of international/regional importance by strengthening the knowledge-base from Pakistan and the Global South and North on areas related to international affairs, geopolitics, defence and strategic studies, diplomacy, security, political economy, terrorism, conflict and governance.

Submission Deadlines: The IPRI Journal is a biannual publication. Research scholars who wish to contribute original, unpublished articles to the Journal may submit these by the end of March for the Summer Issue and by the end of September for the Winter Issue.

Article Word Limit: Articles should be between 5000-8000 words, inclusive of an abstract of 150-200 words, 5-6 key words, and footnotes.

Book Reviews: Reviews of recent books by scholars of standing in their field should be approximately 1000 words.

Editorial and Peer Review Process: All submissions are screened using a similarity detection software. Articles shortlisted by the Editorial Board undergo three double-blind peer reviews (one national and two international). During this stage, articles may not be approved for publication by the referees. However, if they are found suitable for the Journal, reviewers may recommend either major or minor changes in the manuscript. The revision process might comprise multiple rounds. Peer review timelines vary depending on reviewer availability, area expertise and responsiveness. Authors of published articles are given a modest honorarium.
